The above despatch was received to-day by United States Marshal Henkel from George Alfred Lamb, attorney for Peter Power in the Nothern Securities case. Mr. Lamb is in Montreal, where Power had fied to evade the United States Court summ

It is supposed that the Pinkerton men are armed with bench warrants for one of the principal members of the syndicate that used him as a dummy in this litigation.

Power had a conference to-day with Lawyer George Lamb, of New York, and F. S. MacLennon, of this city, the Canadian attorney employed to look after his interests here. After the conference Mr. MacLennon declared that Power would tell everything he knows about the transactions. He is angry at the men who have declared they knew nothing of him or his suit against the Northern Securities Company. He is expected to add the sting of bitterness to his revelations.

Lawyer Lamb said that they will arrest him as soon as his train crosses the border line. Marshal Henkel, when asked about this, said that he had no power to stop such interference until Power is placed into his custody. It is said about the Federal Building that Judge Lacombe would regard such interference, when it is openly known that Power is on his way to this city to give himself the property of harshly with any one guilty of such in-
